FOREWORD

The Echoes opens.

Our trail stretches ahead.

We look backward and see the winding road that has brought us here.

We look forward toward a limitless future waiting just around the bend.

Gratefully we remember those who first tread Dabney's path.

They established her traditions and blazed the trail for us.

Humbly we pick up our packs and walk purposefully onward.

There is much that still must be done, and the trail is beckoning.

Dedication

... A Devoted Teacher

... A Loyal Friend

... A Trusted and Beloved Friend

... We dedicate this 1966 ECHOES
to you,

Mrs. Maude Gwynn

... Because we love you not only as a teacher but as a dear friend.

Annual Staff

EDITOR - Claudia Roberson

ASSISTANT EDITOR - Brenda Wrenn

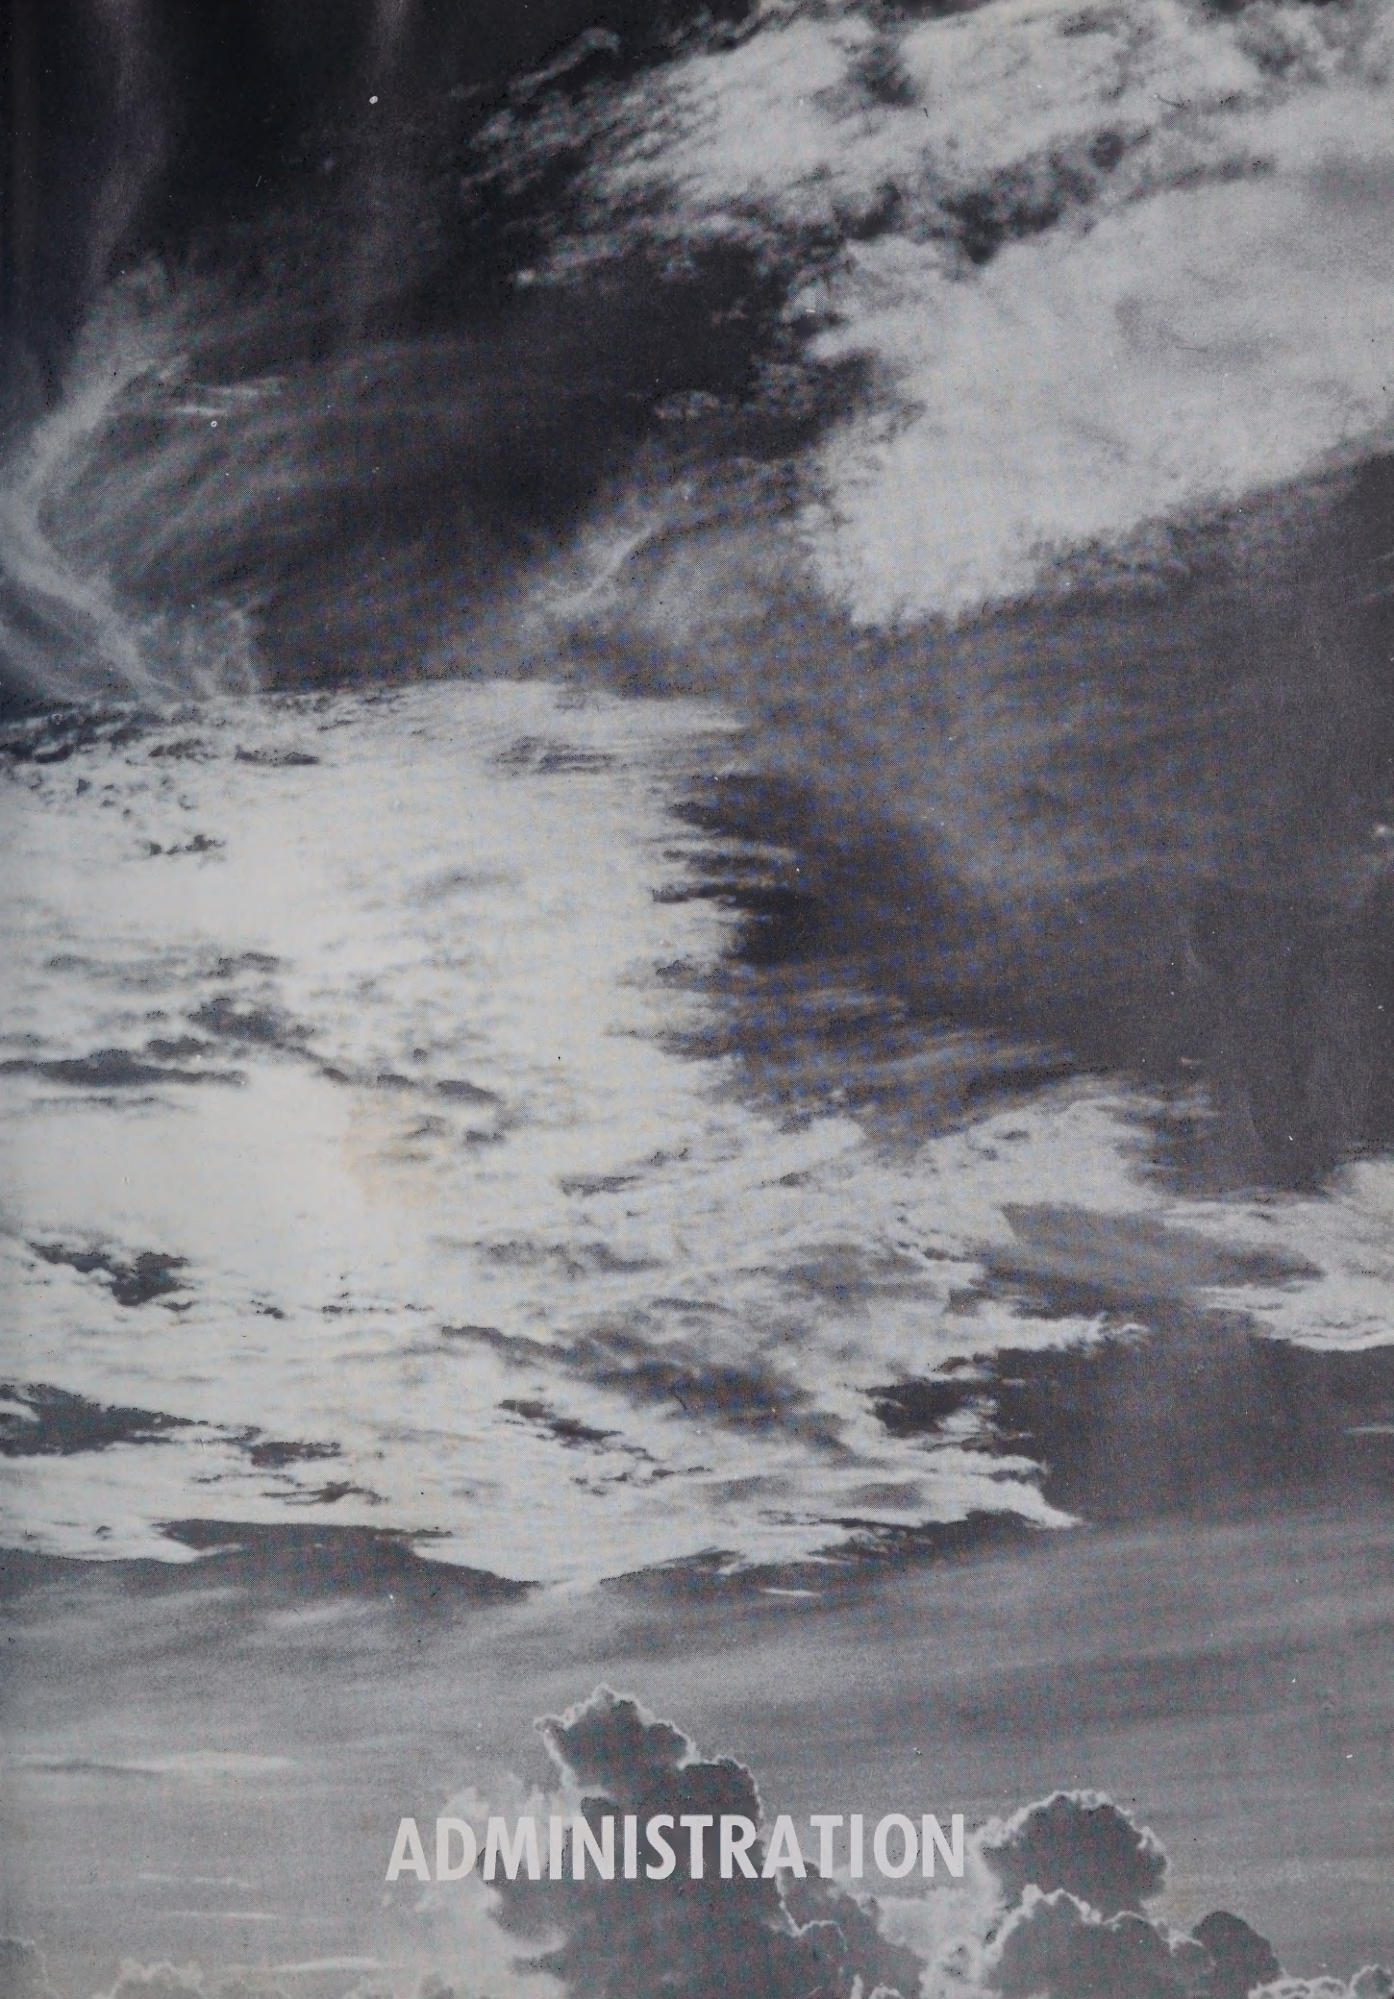

BUSINESS MANAGER - Faye Capps

TREASURER - Peggy Reavis

TYPIST - Gloria Smiley

SPONSOR - Mrs. Mary W. Shields

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. J. C. Stabler, superintendent of the Vance County Schools, has for several years led in the admirable progress of our school system. His sincere interest in the student body and his excellent executive ability are evident to everyone.

PRINCIPAL

Always busy, always interested--Mr. John L. Honeycutt keeps Dabney High School operating smoothly and efficiently--yet he always has time to extend a friendly hand to students, faculty and visitors alike.

SECRETARY

Mrs. W. H. Moss fills an important function in the efficient operation of our school. She takes care of school money, makes school reports, and serves as "Mr. Honeycutt's right hand man." Susie's cheerful personality has made her popular with students and teachers because she is always ready to help them in any way she can.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1966, being of sound minds and judgment, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our Parents: We leave our love and appreciation for making these twelve years possible.

ARTICLE II

To the Faculty: We leave the strength to pull through without us next year.

ARTICLE III

To Miss Petty, Our Sponsor and Mr. Honeycutt: We leave our appreciation for their guidance and understanding.

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors: We leave the distinction of being the LAST class to graduate from "Dear Old D. H. S."; we also leave our Senior privileges.

ARTICLE V

During our years of school we have acquired special abilities which we would like to bestow upon the members of Dabney High School.

I, Mike Averette, leave everything, but take Peggy Reavis with me.

I, Mike Breedlove, leave the responsibility of taking care of my loving wife, Pam, to students of D. H. S.

I, Tommy Ellington, leave my ability to leave school early to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Danny Guin, leave bus 12 to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

I, Charles Ivey, leave my ability to stay alert in class to anyone who doesn't get enough sleep at home.

I, David Parrott, leave a pool stick to Tim Knott who might get along better with it.

I, Ronnie Perkinson, leave my dependability to Joel Harris, who needs it.

I, Andy Stevenson, having a great knowledge of the mechanics of cars and other involved things, find that I have nothing to leave.

I, Jimmy Turnage, leave my ability to co-operate to Dickie Bobbitt.

I, Wayne Woody, leave my ability to go to sleep in class to Jimmy Wright.

I, Faye Capps, leave my position as President of the Monogram Club to someone who will enjoy the struggle to get ready for Homecoming and the fight to raise money for athletic awards.

I, Jean Elliott, leave the last desk on the last row in chemistry to anyone who has good sight and hearing and can make a good guess at what is going on.

I, Linda Glover, leave the right way to say my name to Mr. Woodlief.

I, Doris Norwood, leave my ability to keep an organized home to Pam Breedlove.

I, Peggy Lou Reavis, leave a bottle of tranquilizers and a pad and pencil to anyone who is lucky enough to receive the office of secretary-treasurer.

I, Claudia Roberson, leave my position as Chief Editor to Brenda Wrenn, hoping she will have nerve enough to keep it.

I, Gloria Smiley, bid Dabney High School good-by.

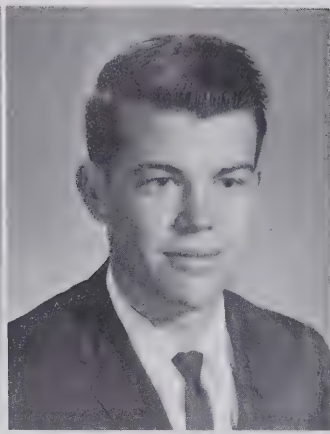

I, Kay Wade, leave my prescription for nerve pills to all those who take business courses under Mrs. Shields. (Believe me, you will need them).

I, Linda Wilson, leave my connections in South Vietnam.

Love ya,
Rosa Williams

To a girl who is very nice and sweet, who I can turn to whenever I need anything. She will always be a very close friend to me. I will find you and Ashton will wish you happiness and I wish you the best of luck when you go to school.

Geraldine,
you are one of the prettiest and nicest girl I know. To me you are a true friend a person I have always been able to depend upon. These few years of school we've had together have been something I will always treasure. I hope you + Ashton have the best of luck. Good luck in everything you do. May God be with you always.

LOVE!
